... at a price you can afford

Some traditional law firms charge more than £600/hour for a consultation.

Instead of paying a lawyer expensive hourly rates, you pay an affordable fee and get access to an experienced legal team who can help you solve any business legal issue.

Our membership delivers real value for our members, so you'll never need to worry about legal bills again.

Prioritised turnaround times, so we won't hold your business up

Friendly and experienced legal team at your fingertips

Easy direct debit monthly in arrears billing, for ease of cashflow

Members-only web portal to download documents and make bookings

Membership discounts apply for three and five year contracts

What is the minimum membership period?

There is a minimum 12-month membership period. You receive a membership discount if you sign up for three or five years.

How do I schedule a consultation?

You simply book your 30-minute consultation through our member portal. One of our lawyers will call you at the selected time.

What documents can I get drafted and reviewed?

Common business-as-usual documents can be reviewed and drafted for our members. Examples include business customer/client contracts (e.g. Client Agreement), online business documents (e.g. Website Privacy Policy), manufacturing/distribution contracts, referral/sponsorship contracts and employment contracts and policies (e.g. Employment Agreement).

Note: Any disbursements and government fees (including for trade mark applications) will incur an additional cost. All project and membership pricing excludes VAT. Membership pricing varies depending on the size/type of business and length of contract. Minimum 12-month commitment.
